Divorzio all'italiana / Divorce Italian Style

(1961 - B&W - 108')

The Portico Library, 57 Mosley Street, Manchester

Film in Italian with English subtitles (rare edition). Introduction in English by Dr Silvana Serra - Q&A session to follow.

As part of the Italian celebrations for Marcello Mastroianni, the protagonist of "La Dolce Vita", this intelligent satire portrays the hypocritical view of the Italian society of the time towards rejecting divorce as illegal while accepting "honour killing" as a minor transgression. This is a cinematic journey into the "Commedia all'italiana". The movie won the Oscar/Academy Award for Best Writing, Story and Screenplay.

Drinks and nibbles to follow.

£4 members of Portico and Dante

£5 non-members / £3 students and unemployed.

Booking required: Portico Library 0161 236 6785
